

practical consulting group

ABOUT: practical consulting group

We are a professional and passionate consulting practice, who delivers very practical outcomes and solutions, of which our clients can begin to benefit from immediately.

We consider our clients to be our partners. We believe that by truly partnering, we create the best foundation for success. Working together in partnership, we can create dynamic solutions and outcomes, that will help you to achieve your goals; quickly and efficiently.

With our own network of professional partners across Australia and New Zealand, each bringing their own expertise, skills and knowledge to ensure that we deliver for our partners, the most-informed, leading-edge and contemporary solutions.

We offer you a no-obligation confidential conversation, to explore opportunities to partner, and to identify where together we can deliver positive outcomes and solutions, benefiting yourself and your organisation.

Engagement (community & stakeholder)

Organisational Strategy & Change

Not-for-Profit Sector Solutions

Project Management

Business Management Consulting

Professional Development / Training Program Management

Marketing & Communications

Facilitation and Presentation

OUR VISION: Playing our part in realising our partner's true potential

ABOUT: darren keenan principal consultant

Darren turns strategy into reality, practically. He is passionate about developing creative solutions, which brings about positive outcomes.

In a professional career of over 20 years, Darren has worked across Australia and New Zealand, with and/or for corporate/commercial, government (all tiers), service agencies, community organisations, not-for-profit sector and member associations.

He has a strong multi-sector background:

- Engagement (community & stakeholder)
- Local Government
- Business Management Consulting
- Health
- Education
- Not-for-Profit and Member Associations

- Community Organisations
- Training development, delivery and management
- Marketing and Communications
- Information Technology
- Small Business, Retail, Wholesale and Distribution

Darren holds a degree in IT, certificate 4 in training and assessment, advanced certificate in engagement, and a certificate in public participation.

In his community, Darren currently holds several roles, including Chairperson of local hospital board, Deputy Chairperson of school governing council, Executive Officer of agricultural board, and is a Justice of the Peace.

“Darren is collaborative, informative and a very good communicator which makes working with him straight forward and enjoyable.” Chris Gandy - Cause and Effective